I was born a rebel

But when I lost the battle

The walls came down on me

Em

Then You stole my heart

D C D

And released me with a cause

VERSE 2

Out of my rebellion

A slave to tyranny

Began a revolution

To bring me to my knees

Found my life when I

Found the power to withdraw

So I let go and I let God

Em D

Be my vision, my strength, and song

C G

Not my will, but Yours be done

Em D

I surrender my rebel heart

VERSE 3

It was in the darkness

You flamed the fire in me

Blazing with a purpose

For all the world to see

I can shine like the sun

With Your light even when night falls

BRIDGE 1

Am

For You know the future

G/B

You have planned for me

Now will be much greater

Than my hopes and dreams

And to my knees I fall

Here on earth and heaven

D

I surrender all

CHORUS 2

C G

So I let go and I let God
